[REDACTED]

25X1

at the DDR/Polish border station in Slubice, Poland, three freight trains loaded with Soviet Mongolian troops were observed.
Each freight train was composed of 20 to 22 freight cars and about 30 grey painted tankcars. These trains were all headed in the direction of the DDR. The troops being transported had black shoulder boards with a red border.

[REDACTED]

three additional Soviet troops trains were observed, all traveling in the direction of the DDR, however, it was impossible to ascertain any information concerning the size of these troop trains or the make-up of the troops being transported.
